

How the TPAM Exchange works

(Created by Masashi Nomura, Facilitator)

TPAM Exchange, one of the Networking Programs in TPAM in Yokohama 2013, will be held from Thu 14th to Sun 17th February. As well as the booths (stands) we have had every year, there will be Video Presentations, Group Meeting, Speed Networking, and a Facilitator for a better means of networking.

TPAM Exchange 'Pre-Event' Communication

Follow us on Twitter

Ask questions/
Make requests

〈Eg.〉
Questions about the organizations in TPAM Exchange//Issues on production and management in your organization// Requests of who you want to make more connections with//How your organization can utilize TPAM Exchange .. or things that are more vague!

The Facilitator will answer your questions/requests, contacting the organizations and participants

The information and questions answered on Twitter will go on the TPAM Exchange Tumblr

14-17 Feb
TPAM Exchange
Talk and 'exchange' the information with other participants and broaden your network at BankART studio NYK 3F!

The detailed program of TPAM Exchange will be released at the end of January. Based on the communication on the Internet, we will arrange the participation of those who won't have a stand.

Booking is required for the Group Meeting and Speed Networking at TPAM Exchange (Booking will be available from the beginning of February)

To participate in the TPAM Exchange from the 14th to 17th Feb, registration for TPAM Pass is necessary.
